FILANTROP INTERNATIONAL AWARD

On May the 23rd, 2018 the 10th Jubilee ceremony of the International Award "FILANTROP" for outstanding achievements of people with disabilities in the sphere of culture and art will take place in Moscow. The ceremony will be held at the State Academic Bolshoi Theatre of Russia.

Twenty years ago, in 1996, at a forum of the Russian Junior Chamber, the birth of the first in the history of the international award for people with disabilities was declared. A year later, "FILANTROP" regulations as the International Prize was registered in the Russian Authors' Society, and two years later, at the State Central Concert Hall "Russia" charity concert "Let it be kindness" took place. On May 27th, 2000 in "Novaya Opera" theater the first ceremony passed with great success.

The award is given to people with disabilities for a truly outstanding achievement in the field of culture and art. The competition is held once in two years. Since 2000, the project attended over 9000 people with disabilities from 35 countries and all regions of the Russian Federation, 311 candidates have been named the winners and received public recognition. Each of the contestants received the title of International Award "FILANTROP" Nominee and a certificate - evidence of human victory over all physical and moral obstacles on the path of life.

This scale charity project encourages all social forces to support people with disabilities who have a will and ability to live and work actively. The project is a real union of creative intelligentsia, the most famous artists of the theater, cinema, pop music, artists and writers, influential politicians, government officials and businessmen.

Russian President Vladimir Putin said in his address: "Over the years, your noble and humanly significant initiative have attracted widespread public attention, brought together a large number of like-minded people - sincere, caring, sensitive to the suffering of other people. And the most important - this unique artistic project solves important social tasks, is aimed on effective assistance to anyone who is seeking to overcome the circumstances of life, strengthen the faith in their own strength, to find the joy of life and companionship."

The jury is headed by People's Artist of the USSR, deputy of the State Duma I.D.Kobzon. Applications are evaluated by a competent jury in three main categories: performing arts, artistic and literary creation. The jury includes such prominent figures of culture and art as I.S. Glazunov, I.M.Luchenok, V.I.Pyavko, L.G.Ryumina, G.M.Apanaeva, L.A.Luzhina, Y.N. Chernov, O.G.Mityaev, G.V.Gladkov, S.G.Belikov, A.S.Tsoy and others. Events, organized in the frames of the Award, have the aim to draw public attention and to show a high level of the winners.

By the resolution of the Government of the Russian Federation № 741 from 12.08.2005, the award "FILANTROP" was included in the list of international, foreign and Russian awards for outstanding achievements in the field of science and technology, education, culture, literature and art. The money prizes received by taxpayers, are not taxable. Prize fund of the "FILANTROP" Award is formed exclusively from donations.

Organizers of the project - a non-profit organization "FILANTROP" Fund and All-Russian Society of Disabled People. Honorary Chairman of All-Russian Society of Disabled People, the deputy of the State Duma A.V.Lomakin-Rumyantsev, head of the Award committee. Chairman of the Board of Trustees is Sergey Katyrin, president of Chamber of Commerce of the Russian Federation - General Partner Award. The project is supported by Moscow Government. Among the partners: Russian Academy of Arts, World Trade Center, Russian Youth Chamber, the newspaper "Russian Disabled" and "Hope".
